Penelope Pew

Penelope was talking with her friend Harriet who is taking this course that uses The Lutheran Handbook as a study guide. Penelope was quite amused at the pictures and how it was written giving so much information on Lutherans. She came across a really interesting page and thought she would share this page with everyone in the church. This page is entitled, "How to Use a Worship Bulletin."

"Many Lutheran congregations offer a printed resource called a bulletin to assist worshipers. The bulletin may contain the order of the service, liturgical information, music listings, the day's Bible readings, and important community announcements.

- Arrive early – A few extra minutes before worship will allow you to scan the bulletin and prepare for the service.
- Receive the bulletin from usher – Upon entering the worship space, an usher will give you a bulletin. Some congregations stack bulletins near the entrance for self-service.

- Review the order of worship – When seated, open the bulletin and find the order of the service, usually printed on the first or second page. Some churches print the entire service in the bulletin so worshippers don't have to switch back and forth between worship aids.
- Determine if other worship resources are required – The order of worship may specify additional hymnals, song sheets, candles, or other external supplies required during the service.
- Fill out the attendance card – A card may be located inside the bulletin or somewhere in your row. Fill it out completely. You may be asked to pass this card to an usher or to place it in the offering plate. Some congregations have visitors/communion attendance books for people to sign.
- Reflect on bulletin artwork – Covers often feature a drawing or design that corresponds to the season of the church year or the day's bible verses. Examine the artwork and make a note of its connection to the lessons or sermon.
- Track your worship progress – The bulletin will guide you through the liturgy, hymns, and lessons as you worship and let you know where you are at all times.
- Watch for liturgical dialogues – The bulletin may contain spoken parts of the liturgy not found in the hymnal. The worship leader's parts may be marked with a "P:" or "L:". The congregation's responses may be marked with a "C:" and are often printed in boldface type.
- Identify the worship leaders and assistants – The names of ushers, musicians, greeters, readers, acolytes, and pastors usually can be found in the bulletin. Greet these people by name following the service. Make good eye contact.
- Review the printed announcements – Community activities, calendars, and updates are often listed in the back of the bulletin. Scan listings during the prelude music, the offering, or the spoken announcements.
- Make good use of the bulletin after the service – Some congregations re-use bulletins for later services. Return the bulletin if possible. Recycling bins may also be provided. If you wish, or unless otherwise instructed, you may take the bulletin home with you.
- Be aware
 - Bulletins often use letter or color codes to signify which hymnals should be used. Look for a key or legend that details this information.
 - Many church secretaries and worship committees need help preparing the bulletin each week. You may want to volunteer to copy, fold, or assemble the bulletin for an upcoming service.
 - Most congregations stand at certain times during worship such as to honor Jesus' presence when the Gospel is read. Standing and sitting—even occasional kneeling—are not for exercise. Rather, they're an important physical participation in worship that helps you focus on the meaning behind the action."

Penelope found this very interesting because Living Grace's bulletins for worship services follow the most of these points. As we await the Resurrection of Our Lord, we enter into Holy Week which has different liturgies and the worship services are different from the Sunday services. The bulletins will be very helpful in these services to guide you through them. The bulletin and other supplemental worship materials are there to help you with the worship service and coming early to the service will enable you to be prepared and ready to worship with the community of saints.

The total offering received through 28 February 2006, was $39,779.19. For the same period in 2005 we had received $42,713.77. The not so good news is that we are trailing 2005 by 7.4%. Our 2006 budgeted income should be $57,876.50.

A complete outline of income and expenses for January and February 2006 is on the bulletin board for your review.

Thank You!

To Our Living Grace Family:

Many thanks for your prayers and your many expressions of love and concern during my father's illness and at his death. Your sympathy has been a great comfort to my mother as well. My family relied heavily on your kindness since my parents were away from their lifelong home during this most difficult time. We are grateful for all of you, and are blessed that God has provided such good friends to comfort and sustain us. Thank you all.

Shirley Arroyo

Thanks to everyone that helped make the General Meeting last month such a success. I really did appreciate every ones help and especially a big thanks to the people that cleaned up after. It was the first time in a long time that it was done for me.

I would also like to take this time to "THANK" everyone that contributed to my Hunger Walk Fund. I was able to raise $290.00. all together our church raised almost $900.00.

Phyllis Prunty

Coffee Hosts/Hostesses

Please sign up to help with the Sunday Coffees. Remember to keep it simple and just serve a couple of items like cheese and crackers and a sweet or maybe fruit. That is all that we really need and there are plenty of cookies for the children's table.

Bread for the World

Along with congregations throughout the U.S., the Outreach Committee is sponsoring a Bread for the World "Offering of Letters" on Sunday 7 May. Between services and after the 10:30 service, you will receive assistance in sending letters to your congressional representatives in both the House and the Senate. In 2000, the United States and 188 other countries adopted the U.N. Millenium Development Goal to cut hunger and extreme poverty in half by 2015. President Bush took a positive step this July, when he made a commitment to double U.S. assistance to Africa by 2010. Next, Congress must allocate this funding. The purpose of the "Offering of Letters" is to encourage them to do so. You will be receiving additional information during the month of April in preparation for this event.

Guidelines for Prayer Requests

The April Newsletter marks the first of the three newsletters' cycle. Those names that have appeared in the past three newsletters have been taken off unless you notified Leanne Beutler, Newsletter Editor via email at Lbeutler@aol.com or written note by the April Newsletter deadline that was Sunday, 26 March.

Health Ministry of Living Grace

April is recognized as National Sexually Transmitted Disease Education and Awareness month. I would like to take this opportunity to explore Sexuality from the Perspective of our Faith.

Sexuality and our Faith

God, the creator and sustainer of all that is good, created man and woman and the gift of sexuality (Gen. 1:27-28). He instituted marriage for the good of man, woman and the human culture (Gen. 2:24). Before sin entered the world, man and woman enjoyed relationships which were intimate and supportive with one another and with God. After the fall, relationships became self-serving, destructive and riddled with pain and separation (Gen. 3:14-24). The many difficulties we experience in the use of ourselves and in our relationships can be traced back to Genesis, and indeed the problems we face are very similar: separation from God, relationship conflict and broken hearts, minds, and bodies. We are thankful to God that in our relationship with Christ, we can control the impact of sexual and other sins (1 Thes. 4:1-8).

The State of the Problem

Much has been written about teen pregnancy and the sexually transmitted disease epidemic. There are over 3 million unintended pregnancies each year and 1.1 million to teen mothers. More than 40% of these babies are conceived even though some form of birth control is used! Condoms have been supported as a form of protection, but there is a 20-25% pregnancy rate when they are used. In addition, their failure rate with HIV infections would be much higher, since the HIV virus is 400 times smaller than a sperm! Currently there are over 30 identified sexually transmitted diseases, many with serious and/or deadly consequences. All of these discouraging statistics support the claim that the only form of safe sex is abstinence and living a lifestyle consistent with Biblical standards.

Sexuality and the Church

The church needs to take an active role in reclaiming our young people and providing them with values and tools for living as God's redeemed children. Sexuality is a gift from God that He provides with directions! If we want our children to live with faith inspired values, then we need to embrace them and this difficult topic with all our energy and love.

We can teach and live these values at home, form partnerships with teens, parents and the community of faith, and you can visit with your Parish Nurse if you have any questions or concerns. May our words, lives and families reflect faith inspired values, . . . "you were bought with a price. Therefore honor God with your body." (1 Cor. 6:20).

Yours in Christ

WORSHIP AND MUSIC AT LIVING GRACE

Living Out Our Baptism

The Great Vigil of Easter

This liturgy's Easter proclamation announces, "This is the night in which all who believe in Christ are rescued from evil and the gloom of sin, are renewed in grace, and are restored to holiness." It is the very foundation of our Christian faith, and it is what makes this the crowning moment of the church's year. This night the church celebrates the presence of the risen Lord as he brings us to new life in baptism, gives us his body and blood, speaks his word of promise, and comes to us in the Christian community.

This year Living Grace will be offering the Easter Vigil at the new site. We will be joined for the fifth year by our sister congregation in the Called to Common Mission, St. Bede's Episcopal Church. We also will be joined by St. James Lutheran Church in Norcross. This worship service is very meaningful as we go from creation all the way through to the Resurrection of Our Lord. We encourage everyone to come to this worship service.

Senior Choir

The Senior Choir invites anyone who wishes to sing for worship services to come to rehearsals on Wednesdays, 7-8:30 p.m. For more information, you may contact any choir member or Dr. Sass, Director of Music/Organist.

Junior Choir

The Junior Choir rehearses every Sunday from 12 noon-12:30 p.m. Last newsletter we explained that we would be honoring a choir member who's earned extra points and has good attendance. In order to earn extra points, the choir member must sit in the correct position to sing, answer musical questions, and be on time for rehearsals and warm-ups. The choir member who earned this honorable mention for this month is Abby Campbell.

God's Children Sing

This music program has been put on hold until we move into our new church site. After we move and get settled into our building, a schedule will be published when this program will be started again.

A New Musical Ensemble

We are in the planning stages of developing a new musical ensemble. This ensemble would play in the worship services and possibly help create and lead an alternative worship service. We are looking for anyone who plays an instrument and would like to be a part of this new ensemble. If you would like more information and interested in joining, please see Leanne Beutler, Chair of Worship and Music.

Concert Opportunity

The Atlanta Sacred Chorale will be performing the Duruflé Requiem with Chamber Orchestra and Bruce Neswick, Organ, at Spivey Hall, Sunday, 30 April, at 4:00 p.m. All tickets are $15.00. Call 770/399-7678 or 770/960-4200.
